Government Plans Early Start on New Building

Early start is promised by Public Works Minister D. B. MacMillan for Alberta's new $2,000,000 eight-story administration building, to be located on 109 street and north side of 98 avenue, immediately south of the present administration building. A. H. Brydon, by A. M. Brydon shows modernistic trends of the proposed structure with the exterior of its first two floors finished in black stone. Entrance hall, fronting on main staircase and elevators, will be two stories in height. Partitions between offices will be portable so that the 10,000 square feet of office space on each floor can be allocated to suit the needs of the government.

New Anglo-Home Oil Find May Link Leduc, Woodbend

A substantial gas blow and oil cut mud was obtained in the first drill test of the D3 zone of the Anglo-Home well, 3.1 important oil find midway between Leduc and Woodbend fields.

The well, already a substantial oil discovery in the D2, will prove an important link between the two fields.

REVERSES DROP
The small stretch increases result from price gains in clothing, home furnishings and services, rentals and miscellaneous items. Those off set further declines in food.

Living Costs Fractionally Up Again
OTTAWA, May 4.—(CP)—The national cost-of-living index bounced up one-tenth of a point in a March to April period, the Bureau of Statistics reported today.

The partly erases the drop of three-tenths of a point which occurred during February.

The index, calculated on the basis that living costs in pre-war 1926-29 equalled 100, now is 7.7 points above its reading of just a year ago and three-tenths of a point below the all-time peak of 100.7 touched in October, 1947.

136-FOOT FORMATION
Contact with the D3 formation was made at 284 feet below sea level and the established water level in the nearby fields is 2,017 feet. As a result, 136 feet of D3 formation is expected at the well.

This encounter in the Woodbend field.

Anglo-Home No. 3 is owned 40 percent each by Home Oil Company Limited and Anglo-Canadian Oil Company Limited and 20 percent by the Calgary and Edmonton Corporations.

The three companies own, in the same proportion, a three-quarter-section spread, centering on the well.

The well is located one and one-quarter miles from the nearest Woodbend well and two and one-quarter miles from the nearest Leduc well.

'Home Care' for Tb. Patients Is Problem

By Frank Carey
DETROIT, May 4.—(AP)—Increased "home care" of tuberculous patients—necessary for hospital beds and nurses—has posed new problems of public health concern, a Detroit nurse said today.

Ruth C. Farmer, consultant on tuberculosis nursing to the Michigan Health Department, said public health nurses, in visiting such homes, could help prevent spread of the disease by teaching them about the family by teaching them about the disease.

She also said that the visiting nurse could help promote discovery of tuberculous cases of tuberculosis by teaching the value of regular chest X-rays.

Miss Farmer told the 48th annual meeting of the National Tuberculosis Association.

SHOULD BE SEGREGATED
"In protecting others from the known communicable case it is important that the patient be segregated," she said.

"We know the hospital is the best place to treat the patient but in many instances the patient remains in the home and the reasons vary," she said.

"In some cases the patient refuses hospital care; in others, the private physician does not advise that the patient be segregated for in the hospital."

"In some cases there are not enough bed facilities, or none at all, and during the past few years, even in areas where there are a good number of beds, many have been closed down because of shortage of nursing personnel."

Blockade Off On May 12

LONDON, May 4.—(UP)—Russia and the western powers have agreed to lift the Berlin blockade May 12 and set a meeting of the Big Four for May 23, it was learned today.

The date for lifting the blockade involved a slight compromise by the West. That for the meeting of the council of foreign ministers was a compromise by the Russians.

The East and West now were discussing in New York the details of lifting the blockade.

ORIGINAL PROPOSAL
The West originally proposed May 9 for the lifting of the blockade, and May 23 for the council meeting. Russia's initial suggestion was mid-June.

But the latest Russian proposal to the Western overtures proposed May 12 for the blockade lifting and May 23 for the council meeting—a proposal the West was said to have accepted.

LOS ANGELES, May 4.—(AP)—A member of the First Baptist Church of Los Angeles yesterday charged that church law demand the ouster of Dr. J. Whitcomb Brown, pastor, accused of pecuniary dealings with parishioners.

Church rules demand exclusion of "every brother that walks disorderly," church member Edgar Maxwell declared in an amended complaint suit filed against Dr. Brown.

The suit, brought on behalf of 500 church members against the minister and 79 trustees and deacons, accuses Dr. Brown of kissing women members and maintaining a mistress and a "love child" on church funds.

Dr. Brown has denied the charges. His previous suit was dismissed.

Estimated flow of oil was 70 barrels per hour. Flow was from the D2 zone but was reported to 5,007 feet.

Pipelines Can Help Railways

Pipelines from Alberta oil fields will develop western industries and result finally in more traffic for railways.

The text of the statement: The Dominion government enacted last week general legislation covering the construction and operation of interprovincial and international pipelines.

The Alberta government made representation to the railways committee of the House of Commons on the subject of the most important changes suggested, however.

The committee recommended that any line seeking to transport oil or gas from the province of Alberta should be made common property to the railways.

Mr. Fraser was commenting on a suggestion that the proposed oil pipelines will cause railway traffic to decline.

"It has not yet been decided where the well will be developed," he said.

"We will be spudded during the week of April 15 miles north of the city of Grande Prairie."

Manning to Seek Additional Control

Export of gas by pipeline from Alberta will not be permitted by the provincial government until known gas reserves become sufficient to look after the needs of Alberta.

That is the gist of the statement given today by Premier Ernest Manning who declared it was not consistent with the previous stand taken by the government.

NOT FOR EVERY AREA
The premier pointed out it was not the intention of the government to delay approval of the export of natural gas until gas is made available to every community in Alberta; since he pointed out it would be "economically unsound" to do so.

ALTERNATE URGED
As an alternative to these two proposals, and to give effect to the statement made by the Prime Minister of Canada on his recent visit to Edmonton, the premier said that the Alberta government should have the right to decide whether or not gas would be exported from the province.

It Happened TODAY

Commonwealth

Australia is in no danger of immediate aggression from south-east Asia in the opinion of General Sir Thomas Blamey, commander of Australia's wartime army. General Blamey does not believe from the white Australia policy and Commonwealth influence in south-east Asia that Australia lack the physical resources to make large-scale war. Japan will be a reliable ally.

SIR THOMAS BLAMEY ... No fear.

The Nation

Indians of southern Alberta have been given a "new deal" by the federal government. The bridge area has signed leases for development of 25,000 acres of fertile reservation land by white farmers. Indians will receive an average of more than 40 cents per acre annually as cash bonus and will progressively receive larger shares in crop production on the leased lands from year to year.

University of Alberta will share in a bequest from the late William George Phillips Driskom, Alberta farmer. The will leaves half of an estate valued at $10,609 to the university with the other half left to two residents of England.

Crime
The B.C. government will crack down on those responsible for burnings in the Douglas settlements. Attorney-General Gordon Wimer says that stages are now burnings of public buildings the government will force them to move from their lands in B.C. "We will not stand for any more of this nonsense," he declared.

Medicine
War against diabetes has advanced another step with a new machine that finds hidden diabetes through automatic blood tests. It literally points to people suffering from diabetes.

Lewis Douglas Back At Work
LONDON, May 4.—(AP)—Lewis Douglas, United States ambassador to London, is back at work today, still bandaged heavily because of an injury to his left eye. Doctors have not yet disclosed whether the injury, suffered when Douglas was ejected from a car by a fish hook, will leave his vision seriously impaired.

WELLINGTON, N.Z.—(CP)
New Zealand will be represented at the meeting of the Council of the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association in Ottawa by H. E. Combe and T. C. Webb. Combe is a Labor (government) MP, and Webb represents the National (opposition) party.

Commonwealth

General Blamey does not believe from the white Australia policy and Commonwealth influence in south-east Asia that Australia lack the physical resources to make large-scale war. Japan will be a reliable ally.

Displaced Persons
Australia takes more Displaced Persons than any other country with 4,500 European migrants moved there in February alone. The U.S. took only 3,000 in the period. Australia will receive 30,000 DPs in the first half of this year, with former army and air force camps being used as temporary reception centres.

A Catholic priest, Rev. Carl Schutzen, has set off a great controversy over treatment of Displaced Persons in his parish, Ill. fed and kept in virtual slavery in Alabama. Other Catholic leaders deny the charge, claiming Rev. Schutzen has "hatched two isolated cases of public."

WINSTON CHURCHILL ... No fear.

Politics
The Labor Government of Britain will permit its chief critic, Winston Churchill, to serve on the British delegation to the Council of Europe. Members of the Labor, Conservative and Liberal parties are on the delegation.

Manners & Morals
A Siamese cat at Coronation is making new news. She gave birth to six kittens in four days. They were born on April 27 and May 1 and May 2. One died but others are doing just fine. So is the mother.

Hydraulic Leg For Arms Seen
TORONTO, May 4.—(CP)—New Zealand's Jack Stewart yesterday demonstrated the use of a new hydraulic artificial leg at Sunningbrook to a group of doctors and scientists representing Britain, Canada and the United States. The unit in the foot, which operates both ankle and knee joints, is different from other types of artificial legs.

PIERCING LEG PAINS
Are your leg pains like a knife driving through the bone? Do they keep you from doing the things you want to do? If so, you may be suffering from a condition called "peroneal neuritis." This is a condition of the nerves in the leg, which causes sharp, stabbing pains, especially at night. It is often caused by a strain or injury to the leg, or by a disease of the nerves. It can be treated by a doctor, but it is often cured by a simple exercise routine. See your doctor for a full examination and a complete treatment plan.

Manning Tells Stand On Gas

sent to have the exercise of its authority in this matter made subject to the approval of the lieutenant governor in council of any province. On these grounds the committee turned down the proposed amendment.

OPPOSITE VIEW TAKEN

While no motion was submitted to the House of Commons, however, the Prime Minister expressed his opposition to that expressed by Mr. Chavrier before the committee. The Prime Minister indicated that the provinces alone had the right to say whether or not to export gas to the United Kingdom. The position taken by the Prime Minister was in effect that: Although parliament under the BNA Act had the right to deal with trade and commerce, it had no right to "make exportable something that is governed by provincial law which makes it non-exportable." For this reason the Prime Minister refused to accept the amendment submitted by the Alberta government.

When motion was made to control the export of gas and oil to the United Kingdom, the U.S. is thus left in doubt. One minister of the federal government says that parliament alone has the right to control imports and exports while the Prime Minister has taken the position that parliament cannot give the right to a person to export something that the province has declared non-exportable.

ACT IN STATUTES
Furthermore there exists on the statute books of the Dominion an act entitled "The Electricity and Fluid Exportation Act," which requires that no person shall export or ship out of Canada or to any other part of the Dominion any gas or oil.

Parliament last week granted incorporation to five inter-provincial pipeline companies, most of which propose to export gas or oil from Alberta. Some of these companies have already announced plans for the immediate construction of pipeline.

In the light of the refusal of the Dominion Government to accede to Alberta's request in the matter of amendments to the Dominion pipeline legislation, and due to the fact that Alberta must have authority to regulate the production of oil and gas in keeping with the best known engineering practices in the interests of conservation and production, the Attorney General's Department is now preparing additional provincial legislation to further strengthen Alberta's position to the end that the gas consumers of Alberta, generally, as well as the oil and gas industry of the province, will be afforded the protection necessary in the public interest.

FUTURE DISCUSSED
With Alberta's ever-increasing gas reserves the time may well be at hand when it will be not only feasible but also advisable for Alberta to allow the export of gas at least to the neighboring provinces. Before doing this, however, the government's position consistently has been that the rights of Alberta consumers must be fully protected.

It is generally realized that it will be economically unwise to make natural gas available to every consumer in the province before gas can be exported to other provinces, but the government's position is that any pipeline constructed for the purpose of taking gas outside the province must not jeopardize the rights of the people of this province either as to the amount of gas that will be available to, or the price that will be paid by Alberta consumers in the future.

Irish Are Given British Rights

Bill Introduced in Britain To Clear Paradox of Eire

LONDON, May 4.—(Reuters)—The Commons gave first reading today to a complex bill embodying this paradox: the Republic of Ireland is neither "part of His Majesty's Dominions nor a foreign country."

By affirming the "territorial integrity" of Northern Ireland, the bill also sets the seal of British law on Irish parliament. Northern Ireland is declared to be "part of His Majesty's Dominions and of the United Kingdom."

BRITISH RIGHTS AND DUTIES
Under the bill, citizens of the new republic who live in Britain will have all the privileges and most of the duties of British subjects.

Whether the duties will include military service in the British forces was not known.

During the war citizens of Eire were liable to national service for Britain after two years' residence. The bill introduced to meet the situation created by Eire's assumption of April 18 of republican status, provides that:

1. Citizens of the Republic of Ireland will not be treated as aliens by Britain.

2. Irish ships and planes will not be regarded as foreign.

3. Neither in past nor future legislation will expressions such as "foreign" or "foreigners" apply to the Republic of Ireland or its inhabitants.

UK CITIZENSHIP
Any citizen of the republic who wishes formally to claim United Kingdom citizenship has merely to visit the local office stating his wish. Those who do not so will still enjoy the rights of United Kingdom citizenship.

The bill specifies that Northern Ireland will in no event cease to be part of the United Kingdom within the content of the Northern Ireland parliament.

Assent of the Dail, parliament of the Republic, will not be required for any changes that may be made in the King's title, the bill says.

FIRE ENGINE CATCHES FIRE

TORONTO, May 4.—(UPI)—A fire engine caught fire while speeding to a blaze at an oil company depot here yesterday.

By the time they had their fire under control, other firemen had put out the oil depot outbreak.

Truman Faces House Defeat

WASHINGTON, May 4.—(UPI)—House Republicans and southern Democrats, who killed President Truman's Taff-Hartley repealer, lined up today to give final approval to their own Wood substitute labor bill.

The action was a mere formality after a week of fiery debate and behind-the-scenes maneuvering. To all intents and purposes, the issue was settled late yesterday on a showdown that forced the administration to vote out of victory.

TWO VOTES TODAY
The first was to be on an anticipated motion to send the labor legislation back to committee. Democratic leaders conceded there was slight chance this move would be successful. And even if it should succeed, it would result only in killing the administration's bill, in the hope that a fresh attempt could be made at some later date.

The second vote, on final passage was expected to see the administration-opposed Wood bill approved.

House acceptance of the Wood substitute will be the most crushing defeat the President has suffered at the hands of the Democratic Congress.

Larger Education Grants Are Urged

PONOKA, May 4.—That larger government grants are necessary for the support of education under the present system, was a subject emphasized at a meeting of the Ponoka Home and School Association, Mrs. O. M. Beck presided.

A very interesting address was given by H. Larsen, principal of Ponoka school in which he explained the present educational set up and pointed out the reasons for marked raising costs.

From 1880-1920, the speaker stated, the program of studies was based primarily on those courses leading to university entrance and consisted of about 150 credits. At present, because of the demand for trained technicians, the public asked for a wider range of subjects in the high school course.

Vocational subjects were three-fourths of the time until now the course embodied 561 credits about 100 of which are still the academic type. It is obvious, he emphasized, that the ordinary small high school cannot do justice to this course. Technical schools have helped but these are not enough.

SOLUTION SUGGESTED

The only answer seems to lie in the complete high school situated in early large centres and serving a wide area. By this means the smaller schools can carry on academic courses with greater efficiency.

Mr. Larsen substantiated his remarks with material taken from speakers at the recent Home and School Convention at Okla. He suggested further, that all ratepayers make use of Home and School groups as a means of open discussion on all school problems including the financial end as well.

A suggested program of study for the Ponoka Home and School Association during the coming year included the following subjects: school curriculum, the complete school, finance and education, citizenship, teachers.

Botha Farmers Not Worried

BOTHA, May 4.—Very little seeding has been done in this district as yet. Farmers have been waiting for the seed, but it has been very slow. The farmers generally do not show much anxiety over putting seed in a dry seed-bed, as results over the years show that a crop seeded in this way can still produce good results.

Jimmy Pulka of Alis has taken over the cream route operated last summer by Gordon Hall.

Seeding Advances At Hardisty

HARDISTY, May 4.—Seeding is on in full swing on the farms in this district. Fields of summer-fallow have plenty of moisture, but stubble fields are quite dry. There has been no rain to speak of yet this spring and with the hot dry winds of late, a good rain would be very welcome.

The CAHA Does It Again

If any other organization but the CAHA — still laughingly referred to by Wayne and Shuster as the Canadian AMATEUR Hockey association — was responsible for the current All Cup playoff fiasco there would be much more eyebrow lifting on the part of puck followers.

However, by this time the "everything-happens-to-them" point of view is the one generally adopted toward president A. Pickard's moribund body.

Still the spectacle of Pickard and his mates backing down on playoff arrangements is a ridiculous one, even for them. In the past they have drawn up some weird playoff schedules in their attempt to please various rink managers. These gentlemen always reach for a slice of the bigger money that invariably pops up when it's east against west for amateur hockey's various awards.

But this could be said for CAHA brass-hats in bygone years: generally they stood by their guns. The clubs putting out could like it or lump it. Frequently they didn't like it.

But rarely did they jump it.

Caps Become 'Alibi Ike's'

Regina Caps, who have played little hockey but have presented a solid and glib 'Alibi Ike' front since hitting the east, finally took it in teeth and staged what amounted to a showdown strike.

Actually the CAHA front-office didn't permit the Regina insurrection to reach the stage of an all-out sit-down move. Manager Cliff Ehrle, who would be pretty much a lamb at the commencement of this tangle with Ottawa's ace angler, Tommy Gorman, told Pickard, Dudley et al that Caps just wouldn't keep any fourth game date in the egg-shaped Auditorium.

"We've had enough for now," he announced after Gorman, great sportsman that he is ("Why shouldn't all the games be played in Ottawa?" he refused to back down on pre-series arrangements).

And in the face of the Ehrle edict (bluff might be a better word) the CAHA went into a spin.

George phoned Dudley. Dudley phoned Pickard. Pickard liked (he usually does) phoned Dr. W. G. Hardy, thus bringing Edmonton into the picture.

Fortune tellers and solar tables were hastily consulted, and Manager screamed: "Yuh can't do this to me. I got the tickets printed. What more I won't pocket so much money?"

The fourth game went to Toronto.

The Show (Circus?) Must Go On

It's hard to believe now that there's a peep at Pickard's forehead he's starting to move right in on the hockey game that neither fish nor fowl.

His idea is to play the fifth game—if Caps make the grade tonight—also in Toronto Maple Leaf Gardens, long the broadcasting eye of one Foster (Homer) Hewitt as well as the hideout (?) of that absolutely repressed promoter Conny Smythe.

And who knows but what going at his present lick Ehrle might not get some of the games—again if Art Somers and his gang hang tough—booked right into Regina's Queen City Gardens.

The thought of the teams reversing their field and heading west for a sixth and possible seventh contest is no more ludicrous than are certain aspects of the current mix-up.

After all the show — in this case it's more like a circus — must go on.

Just before going to press a hot tip was received from the usual reliable source, one that may interest the gambling fraternity.

Regardless of how many switches and changes are made by the CAHA before Caps and Senators wind it up there's no chance of Edmonton getting a game.

Something about no ice in the Arena to say nothing of no real interest in the series, possibly because it's May 4 by the calendar.

'Lady Rasslers' Lay Egg, Not So Oeming

Al Oeming shook his bag of wrestling tricks at the Arena last night and out popped two grappling poses for a bout which Mr. Oeming advertised as "being a milestone in Edmonton wrestling history."

He was right. Seniors have the local fans been less as cold or he would have lost. It wasn't good wrestling, and it wasn't good breeding, and it places the act dragged.

20th CENTURY GOES TO COURT

NEW YORK, May 4.—(AP)—The 20th Century Sporting Club has gone into court in an effort to prevent Ray Robinson, world welterweight champion, from appearing at a rival organization.

"Figuratively" speaking the girls weren't bad. But when it came to wrestling the consensus generally was that any rate housewife capable of beating her husband could take on Miss Robinson and her associates.

"Credle" Goldstick was the third party in the ring with the peroxide blonde pockmarked. Two big men—Earl McCready and Al Mills—awaited it out in the main event. McCready won the odd fall in three with a rolling cradle hold. Earlier, Mills scored a fall with the Japanese stretch and McCready was awarded one after Mills "stuck" referee Chester Jackson.

STARS IN ACTION

Main action on the card saw Tony Harris, a local boy, and Lavender Barker finish in a draw. Barker tossed Harris into the air on one occasion and was promptly attacked by a score of members belonging to the Freydenz Cruelty to Six Star Society. Each man scored one fall in the 36-minute match.

Jerry Meeker defeated Francis Miguel in the usual preliminary. The Harris-Barker match was good, and McCready-Mills fair, but the female festivities didn't come up to scratch. The girls are under puff charms at best. But don't laugh too hard, boys. They drew $400,000.

Crooning Branca Hurls Fourth Win

No Music in Red Bats But Different With Senators

NEW YORK, May 4.—(BUP)—Ralph Branca, Brooklyn's crooning pitcher, put Cincinnati Reds on a "slow boat" yesterday when he shut them out, 3-0, for his fourth-straight victory—tops in the majors.

The riflin' right hander scattered eight hits and struck out six, bearing down beautifully in the pinches to leave 12 men stranded on base.

Branca, whose specialty number on the stage is "Slow Boat to China," was all through with crooning while the baseball season is over. Off to the beat start of his career, he is aiming for "at least 20 victories and a Cy Young award."

TWO-RUN LEAD
Branca was given a two-run lead in the first inning when Pee Wee Reese walked and Duke Snider, Roy Campanella and Billy Cooper followed in succession. Jackie Robinson's homer gave Brooklyn its final run.

Washington Senators, normally the most punches club in the majors, put on their greatest one-day home run hitting spree in their history when they got seven round trippers in a 10-inning, 14-2 victory over the White Sox at Chicago. The Nat's hit W. H. Kinsinger, called in on homers by Clyde Volmer, who got two, and Eddie Stewart, Eddie Delmonico, Mark Christman, Al Evans, and Joe Coan. Gus Zernie and Joe Frazier homered for Chicago. The Nat clinched victory in the 10th when Evans and Coan hit home runs.

At St. Louis, the pace-setting Yankees started their first western swing trip by blanking the Browns in 14, 5-0, from the Bronx. Yankees clinched it in a two-out eighth in which Tommy Henrich doubled and Bobby Brown hit a home run.

WILLIAMS SOCKS ONE
Ted Williams, a hardy perennial in the home run field, hit one today—his third of the year—for the Red Sox in their Detroit game, which ended in a 14-14 tie after 13 innings.

Philadelphia Phillies combined with the Sox to hit three home runs and a big six-run seventh inning to defeat St. Louis Cardinals 7-5.

Walt Dubiel, right-hander, acquired from Philadelphia during the winter, pitched Chicago Cubs to a 4-0 victory over the league-leading Boston Braves in a night game.

Sid Gordon hit a home-run, his first, in a triple and double to lead New York Giants to a 5-3 victory over Pittsburgh Pirates. Willard Marshall and Mickey Livingston of the Giants also hit for the circuit.

Westmont Drill

Westmont senior B baseball team will work out tomorrow night at Westlakes high school starting at 6:30 o'clock. Another practice will be held Sunday at Clarke stadium commencing at 2 p.m. All players interested are welcome at both practices.

Canadian AC Plans $15,000 Clubhouse

Construction of a fully-equipped $15,000 clubhouse by the Canadian Athletic club is scheduled to commence in the fall. Eric Herbrand, secretary of the organization, announced in connection with the annual meeting last night. Site of the planned building is 111 avenue and 109 street.

Blue prints already are being drawn up and it is hoped that tonight and tomorrow night, along with some of the rules of the game, particularly concerning refereeing, will be a highly successful class.

Further actions will be held tonight and tomorrow night, also at the Rec building, starting at 8 o'clock.

New Ball Loop

An intermediate fastball league to accommodate all teams not entered in the city league will be formed at the Recreation building tomorrow at 3 p.m. Edmonton Flyers, Norwood Flyers, B.A. O's, and Motor Car Supply are among the teams expected to enter the league.

Umpires' School Goes Over Big

First session of the Recreation Commission's baseball umpires' school, being conducted by John Ducey at the Rec building, was held last night with the maestro of the indicator showing the 27 attendees many tricks of the trade.

Ducey dealt with technique, explaining how an umpire should conduct himself both at home plate and on the bases. He also dealt with some of the rules of the game, particularly concerning refereeing. It was a highly successful class.

Further actions will be held tonight and tomorrow night, also at the Rec building, starting at 8 o'clock.

Leo Sips Milk

Durocher, having paid what he currently hopes is the last of numerous trips to Chandler's office here, last sat and relaxed and drank milk after the ordeal had ended.

"Just say that I'm happy," he replied to questions. "The only statement that amounts to anything is the one the Commissioner just made."

Al Durocher faces now is the charge of simple assault filed against him in New York City Monday by the Brooklyn Daily Eagle for scolding for beating Monday, and Leo said he will be there, complete with affidavits and eye witnesses.

YOUNG HURLER TOSSES SECOND DEATH BALL

WYOMING, Ia., May 4.—(AP)—Clifford Dirks, a grief-stricken high school baseball pitcher, was in seclusion today after a ball he hurled caused accidental death the second time within a year.

Victim was Glenn Rhoads, 17-year-old Lisbon, Ia., senior who died in a Cedar Rapids, Ia., hospital yesterday morning of a delayed brain hemorrhage.

Rhoads was on second base when the accident occurred in a Lisbon vs. Wyoming game. Dirks, 18, a Wyoming pitcher, threw the ball in an effort to pick Rhoads off. Ball hit Rhoads on the back of the head.

Rhoads went home apparently recovering. His condition became critical yesterday. Last fall a ball pitched by Dirks hit Norman Latore of Oxford Junction, Ia., in a similar accident. Latore died the next day.

Kingway Fastball Action Opens Tonight

Curtain goes up on the local senior fastball season at Kingway Park tonight and all advance indications point to a banner year for the melon-haters.

They are getting under way three weeks earlier than last year, due to the early spring, and players are well conditioned for the summer's long grind leading to playoffs in August.

Opening night's festivities, with action starting at 7:05 o'clock, features Mertons and Walk-Rites, two top teams in the women's top last season, in first game.

Legionaires and Presidents, who are getting under way three weeks earlier than last year, due to the early spring, and players are well conditioned for the summer's long grind leading to playoffs in August.

Both will be seven-inning games as league executives are attempting to speed up action this year.

Danny Kaye Hurt In Admiring GBS

'Show Goes On' Tradition Follows Auto Accident

By Henri Tosti Russell
LONDON, May 4.—(UPI)—Danny Kaye, the kid from Brooklyn who has become the current comedy sensation of British vaudeville, was painfully bruised today because he held a mutual admiration session with playwright George Bernard Shaw.

Five minutes after leaving Shaw's home at Ayot St. Lawrence, outside London, yesterday, Kaye was injured in an automobile accident. But he went on stage at London's Palladium theatre twice last night to "ease them as usual" in the greatest performance of his career.

During the first performance, with doctors waiting in his dressing room, Kaye suddenly turned white with pain while before the audience and the curtain was rung down to the strains of "God Save The King."

NO MAJOR INJURIES
Rushed to Middlesex hospital, examination, including X-rays, showed no major injuries, but severe bruises.

Wounded in tape from neck to waist, doctors permitted him to go on a second time. And one veteran British theatre critic commented: "If he is as past his performance was certainly a classic of the show-business tradition."

Interviewed backstage, Kaye said: "I never knew what a relief it was to learn I was all right."

USES DOUBLE TALK
Tossing something akin to the double talk which has made him famous, he added:

"I've never been so thrilled in my life to meet Shaw. I mean—not to get smashed up in that accident."

"That hurt—I mean the accident—not meeting Shaw. That was wonderful. I mean the most wonderful man I've ever met."

FEELING MUTUAL
To prove the feeling was mutual, Shaw, who had retired for the night, left word with his housekeeper to say that "Danny Kaye is one of the most handsome men Mr. Shaw has ever met."

The shrewd, opinionated, but kind Mr. A. G. Balgair of Calgary reached here in an incubator in a Trans-Canada Airlines plane. Doctors said the infant was suffering from a diarrhoeal hernia.

RED WRITING PEACE HYMN

MOSCOW, May 4.—(UPI)—Dmitri Shostakovich, one of the big three of contemporary Soviet composers, was reported today to be completing a new composition called "The Song of Peace."

Cement Plant Strike Set

CALGARY, May 4.—(UPI)—Workers at the Eskabank plant of the Canada Cement Company will go on strike next Saturday morning.

This was announced today by William Longridge, representative of the big three of contemporary Soviet composers, was reported today to be completing a new composition called "The Song of Peace."

Longridge said the strike was called because of the failure of wage negotiations.

ARBITRATION FAILS
Government intervention failed in an attempt to settle the dispute last Sunday.

The union, meanwhile, has charged the company with refusing to grant wage increases in line with other Alberta industries.

The company said this was done, "to prevent the strike."

Calgary Child Dies After Flight East
TORONTO, May 4.—(CP)—A Calgary child died last night a few hours after being flown here for emergency medical treatment.

The child, a boy, was flown from Calgary to Toronto in a Trans-Canada Airlines plane. Doctors said the infant was suffering from a diarrhoeal hernia.

Price Drops Seen Ahead

WINNIPEG, Man., May 4.—(UPI)—Price declines, following the downward trend in the United States were already apparent here.

E. W. Stevens, president of the Manitoba Retail Merchants' Association, said today:

He was commenting on a statement made in Saskatoon, Sask., Monday by S. A. Bowtell, Toronto president of the Retail Merchants' Association. Bowtell told a meeting that Canadian reaction to the downward trend across the line was expected shortly.

Stevens said that there was about a six-month time lag between Canadian and American price movements. He said that U.S. prices had been on a decline for three months.

Five In Family Killed In Fire

JERSEY CITY, N.J., May 4.—(AP)—Five members of a family were killed and two injured early today as a flash fire shot up the stairwell of a three-story brick building here.

The dead were Frank Quazzo, 60; his son, Albert, 21; two daughters, Mrs. Angie De Marco, 26, and Phyllis Quazzo, 26; and Albert's wife, Conita, 24. Cause of the two-alarm fire was undetermined.

ROAD OF LIFE

Very few people develop single-mindedness of purpose sufficiently strong to guide them through life without stumbling.

To most of us the road is not a broad, smooth, surfaced highway along which we can sail to the fulfillment of our dream and ideal.

Instead, it is checked with sunlight and shadow, and even when very young we discover there are pitfalls and avoided obstacles to be hurdled.

A slight mis-step may result in grief, shame or embarrassment; and often the right from the wrong way has been clearly defined. They who do go the way may have been bewildered, afraid or weary, may need care and guidance.

Do you know that you are helping to build a place by the side of the road where some going through life may rest a moment to gather strength and courage to go on?

It is true, because that's where part of your Community Chest contribution goes.

The Community Chest helps support such organizations as the Good Shepherd Home which was originally opened by the Sisters of Our Lady of Charity in 1912 for the training and rehabilitation of juvenile girls. In addition to the regular school courses, the girls have the opportunity to learn sewing, fine needlework, home economics and music. Medical care is provided and particular attention is given to health education and training in citizenship. The Good Shepherd Home is one of 27 organizations benefitting by your contribution to the Community Chest.

Story of Nfld. Life Brightens CP News

TORONTO, May 4.—(CP)—The story of Newfoundland life, now taking its place in Canadian newspapers, is a fascinating and romantic addition to Canadian news.

Victor Sifton, president of the Canadian Press, said in his address to the News-Canada-operative's annual meeting today.

Mr. Sifton welcomed to the membership representatives of the St. John's dailies, Hon. J. S. Currie of the Daily News, and Ralph R. Herder of the Evening Telegram.

Both papers receive the CP's report of world and Canadian news and co-operate with a CP staff correspondent in covering the new province for the rest of Canada.

ENLARGE HEAD OFFICE
Mr. Sifton, publisher of the Windsor Free Press, told the attending publishers and editors of Canada's largest newspaper, and said that during the next year plans will be studied for enlarging the new head office building, opened last year, from two to four stories.

He said CP's well-weathered staff had been built back until it is potentially the strongest in the association's history, while the trans-mount set-up is the finest. He felt that training and building would go on, particularly at Ottawa and on the diplomatic beat.

BUSY PERIOD
Gillis Purcell, general manager of the last year was among the busiest Canadian news periods CP has known. The emphasis was on politics and diplomacy with five provincial elections and three national political conventions.

His coming year would be at least as active as the Dominion and his provincial elections. He reported on plans for improvement of the CP election service.

Half of the world's estimated coal reserve of service brilliant tone is in North America.

Tiny Elocutionists Win Praise in Festival

To a novel combination of Alice in Wonderland and Humpty-Dumpty went top marks in yesterday's elocution contest at the Edmonton Musical Festival.

Mrs. Leona Patterson, Calgary, adjudicating, said the unusual mark of 90 went to a "completely delightful" duologue presented by Myrna Clarke and Sandra Neve in the under-10-year class.

"This play gave us the first Alice I've ever seen that was the right age," Mrs. Patterson said.

"I've always thought Alice should be small, blind and scared."

And to Myrna Clarke and the fabulous egg went the high distinction of "sounding fat, seeing fat and feeling fat."

Donald Peirce carried off top honors with a mark of 88 in Class 200 monologues, and 86 in Class 200 dramatic monologues. He shared the spotlight with Philip Seabrook in Class 200 duologues for under-14-year-olds with a mark of 81.

Philip followed Donald in the monologue with 87, and Patterson up in the duologue, Class 200 went to Doreen Knowles and Jacqueline Williams with 80.

Second in class 200 dramatic monologues were Gordon Zard and Marilynne Giebelhaus with tied scores of 82.

The single entry in class 200 duologues for those under 17 years were Theresa Kehoe and Jacqueline Williams with 82.

Topping the tiny speakers in the grade two class was Jacqueline Fournel with "To Love to be a Fairy Child." Jacqueline won a mark of 87 for "Good story telling and true fairy admittance."

Following with 86 was Mary-Anne Hare with real and vivid story telling qualities. Mary-Anne tied class 188 Canadian poetry for children under eight with 87.

School Setup Here Protested to Board

127 Homes To Be Built In Edmonton

Parents Ask Revision In High School Grades

Protest against continuing the eight-grade public school system in Edmonton was made to the school board last night by a delegation from the Edmonton Home and School Council.

Mr. A. G. Maclellan, professor in agriculture at U of A, and chairman of a committee studying the intermediate school problem, also made a brief pointing out the unfairness of changing a child's environment at the time of passing from grade eight to nine.

It was argued that it was easier for a child to adjust himself at an earlier age and take grades seven, eight and nine together before progressing to high school.

In defending the system presently in force in Edmonton, R. N. Sheppard, superintendent of schools, explained the lack of accommodation preventing the ideal of a central intermediate school fed by surrounding elementary schools.

Before offering grade nine he said, it is necessary to have two classrooms and two teachers. With Edmonton's present population and school accommodation this is impossible, Mr. Sheppard said.

Promise was given that all factors would be considered in arranging grades to best possible advantage before schools opened in the fall.

Non-resident students attending city schools in grades nine to twelve will pay $125 a year, effective with the opening of school in September.

Increase from $115 to $125 was approved by the board.

Policy of the board in making cash grants towards the cost of visual and music appreciation equipment bought by schools will be continued. Grant will be 50 per cent of the cost with a maximum of $10 a year and $50 on any one piece of equipment.

Request for full intermediate school facilities in the proposed Strathcona Place elementary school was made by a delegation from Maclellan C. O. M. A. L. Y. League. Question was referred to the parent committee for further investigation.

Chief of police will be notified by the board of the necessity for keeping dogs away from school grounds. Four rates of children being bitten by dogs were included in an accident report submitted to the board.

Several appointments were announced: G. L. Davies was named principal of Highland school. Mrs. J. F. Magill was appointed to the elementary staff of Queen's avenue school on temporary basis. Miss Joan Fawcett and Miss Margaret Maclellan were appointed to the stenographic staff, and George W. Miles to the industrial arts staff. W. T. Wagner and M. Henderson, directors of the Edmonton Personnel Association, were granted permission to attend a conference in Winnipeg, May 6.

Instructors in industrial arts and technical electives will be given time off to attend a conference in Calgary, May 20-21.

A. N. Bird was granted permission to be absent from duty May 23 and 26 in order to attend an executive meeting of the British Columbia branch of the Canadian Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation in Vancouver.

Edmonton's building total was increased by approximately $300,000 Tuesday as permits for 127 houses and an apartment block were issued to city contractors.

This brings the building total for the year to approximately $3,500,000. And the home building total to $3,200,000. Home building permit total to the same date last year was approximately $2,600,000.

MacK Construction Co., 10445 79 avenue, took out permits for 40 houses at $5,500 each. They will be erected in the 45 block on 72, 80 and 81 avenues.

Permits for 16 houses were issued to T. H. House, 11333 78 avenue, to be erected in the 37 block on 72, 80 and 81 avenues. These houses will cost $8,000 and four $7,000.

Sherwin Construction Co. took out permits for 28 houses 24 of which will cost $7,000 and four $5,500.

These homes will be erected in the 112 block on 72 avenue and in the 31 and 73 blocks on 112 street.

Shortage of Nurses Discussion Theme For Annual Meeting of VON in Ottawa

OTTAWA, May 4.—(CP)—A shortage of nurses continues to plague the Victorian Order of Nurses for Canada, and this problem, growing more acute as the service expands, is bound to come up for discussion at the Order's annual meeting, opening today.

Mrs. G. E. Kitchen, president of the Edmonton branch of the VON, arrived at the beginning of the week in Ottawa to attend the annual convention.

Mrs. Kitchen will present shortly to her home city where she will report the findings of the convention to her local branch.

"There already are 108 branches of the order in cities and towns across Canada," a VON official said today. "More offices are expected to open when we get the staff."

Some 250 delegates and nurses from all parts of the Dominion have gathered in the capital for afternoon when the group addresses the meeting of this 35-year-old public health organization.

It is expected that a new president will be elected at an early session, succeeding Senator Norman Patterson of Ottawa, who is resigning after five years as VON president.

Highlight of the two-day conference will come Wednesday afternoon when the group addresses its general session at government house.

The time during which wild creatures must provide for their families is brief. With human beings the reverse is true. No man can be sure that his family responsibilities will not outlast his lifetime.

In providing for today it is easy to neglect provision against this uncertainty of tomorrow. Yet there is an easy, sure way to make it.

Brown-Bohush Wedding At Robertson Recently

ROBERTSON United Church was bright with bouquets of mixed spring flowers Monday evening, when Olga Bohush exchanged marriage vows with Gordon Edward Brown.

New Angus McQueen performed the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bohush of Youngstown, and the son of L. J. Col and Mrs. (Fay) Brown of Edmonton.

Entering the church on the arm of her father, the bride chose for her wedding, a pale blue crepe dress. Simply styled on princess lines, it featured self-covered buttons down the front.

PENDANT GIFT
Pink elbow-length gloves, and a crossless, off-the-face ball of pink straw completed her costume. She carried a colonial bouquet of American Beauty roses, and wore as her only jewelry the bridegroom's gift of a pearl-drop pendant.

Miss Margaret Currie of Lloydminster was bridesmaid. Her dusky rose crepe dress featured three-quarter sleeves and draping around the waist to back fullness. Her hat and accessories were navy blue, and she carried a colonial bouquet of spring flowers and sweetheart roses.

Best man was Norman Brown, brother of the bridegroom, and the guests were ushered by James Gie and George Manson.

Wedding music was played by R. Carroll, and during the singing of the register Mrs. J. C. Neilness sang "The Lord's Prayer."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bohush chose a floral printed silk on a black background, with a black straw hat, trimmed with white. Gardenias complimented her corsage.

Mrs. Brown wore a printed silk with a black background. She completed her costume with a black straw hat trimmed with small pink roses, and her corsage was a gardenia with pink sweet peas.

Reception followed, and Mrs. Brown was held in the drawing room of the MacDonald hotel. The bride's table was centered with a three tier cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Bridal toast was proposed by J. R. Grant and Mrs. Grant presided at the coffee tray.

Following a honeymoon trip to Calgary and Banff, Mr. and Mrs. Brown will make their home in Edmonton.

The bride is a 1946 graduate of the Royal Alexandra hospital school of nursing, and the bridegroom is a graduate of the University of Alberta, where he was affiliated with the Delta Upsilon fraternity.
